

Story County is a community that cares about education.

504

children in UWSC funded programs improved or maintained their reading proficiency level

2,630

participants in community-based education programs said they had a better understanding than before underserved youth, ages K-8th grade, participated in summer enrichment programs

655

ACPC is a non-profit childcare center serving infants through school-aged children. School ages include before and after school care and out-of-school programs. These programs encourage literacy skills, reading development, relationship building, and more.

United Way of Story County